

Sew Wot Mum?

The FAMILY FUN DAY is fast approaching (28th May) and we are looking for anyone who can help out with ideas and some basic sewing for the “Mum’s & Friends” craft stall at this year’s event.

Ideas so far include patchwork cushions, beautiful aprons, elegant lingerie, lavender bags, ‘designer’ bags, doorstoppers, pin cushions, oven mitts and wheat packs.

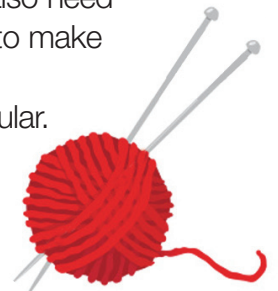

Can you sew a button? Perhaps you can’t sew but you can stuff a cushion with wadding? Maybe you don’t own a sewing machine but can do some simple hand stitching. If you do own a sewing machine we have some fun and easy to follow patterns.

We need people to sew: buttons on aprons, cushions, pin cushions and fill cushions, doorstoppers, wheatbags and lavender bags. We also need any enthusiastic knitters to make scarves again this year – they have been very popular.

Sew Wot Mum?

So what Mum sewed what? Perhaps this is the question that people will be asking when they are admiring and purchasing the wonderful items for sale at Family Fun Day – created, sewn and carefully put together by the Arndell Mums and Friends.

But... to make this all come together we need ideas, volunteers and donations of some basic fabrics, notions and threads ie. craft wadding, ribbon, rice, wheat, lavender, broadcloth/calico etc.)

In the holidays:

why not sort out unwanted toys, books or any other items which can be donated to the White Elephant Stall...
